

Wisconsin Evangelical
Lutheran Synod
Nebraska District
Technology Committee

Chair
Greg Boggs
402/413-5070
gboggs@mtolivebroadcast.org

Vice-Chair
Rev. Norman Schell
402/880-3645
naschell@gmail.com

Services Available for Congregations

Audio

- recommendations for improving existing audio reinforcement systems
- design of new audio reinforcement systems
- acoustical evaluation, measurement, and tuning of the church/school physical environment
- design recommendations of audio support systems for the hearing challenged
- evaluation of audio and video system bids and quotations from contractors
- live on-site demonstrations of audio system design and equipment options
- assistance in setting up, configuring, and running HymnSoft

Video

- consultation and design of systems to record/stream worship services
- maintenance of convention and conference video and document archives
- traveling audio/video production crew for archiving conference and convention proceedings

Computer

- provide electronic worship distribution resources for congregations, shut-ins, and nursing homes
- church and school network design, including WiFi, cloud, security, and firewalls
- computer software training for called workers and their office staff
- assistance with virus/malware removal
- maintain the (private) Nebraska District electronic mail system and lists
- design and maintenance of public and restricted Nebraska District websites
- design of congregation websites (which may include hosting at welslutheran.net)

Miscellaneous

- on-site technical and logistical support for conventions, conferences, events, and meetings
- building the Nebraska District media library
- development of distance learning curricula
- production of promotional multimedia presentations
- design of church and school telephone/VoIP systems
- consultation and design of chancel lighting
- discounted pricing for computers, audio/video equipment, telephone systems, and lighting